Re-entry and Community Supports Panel

Moderators: Kristina Pacheco and Travis Parker
Angela Hawken, Pepperdine University
Ada Pecos Melton, President, American Indian Development Associates
Leslie Mesteth, Access to Recover, Oglala Sioux Tribe
Honorable Hope Lone Tree, Tribal Relations Advisor, U.S. Attorney’s Office, District of Arizona
Reentry is a process of using “programs targeted at promoting the effective reintegration of offenders back to communities upon release from prison and jail” which “… is intended to assist offenders in acquiring the life skills needed to succeed in the community and become law abiding citizens.” www.reentry.gov

- Criminogenic needs refer to:
  1) anti-social personality,
  2) anti-social attitudes and values,
  3) anti-social associates,
  4) family dysfunction,
  5) poor self-control,
  6) poor problem-solving skills,
  7) substance abuse, and
  8) lack of employment and/or employment skills.

- Jail Reentry refers to release from shorter-term commitments or sentences in tribal or county jails, often less than 1 year.

- Correctional Reentry refers to release from long-term commitments or sentences in state and federal facilities, often more than 1 year.
Intercept 3
Jails / Courts

Intercept 4
Reentry

Intercept 5
Community corrections

Sequential Intercept Model

Specialty Court

Dispositional Court

Jail

Jail Re-entry

Prison / Reentry

Violation

Parole

Violation

Probation

Community