CAPTURING MEETING PHOTOS AND VIDEOS

We value the opportunity to bring people like you together for educational and informational meetings and conferences. To capture these moments, SAMHSA's GAINS Center staff, including members of our Social Media Team, will be shooting video and taking pictures throughout today's meeting. It's possible that you will be included in these images, which may be used in our eNewsletter, on Twitter, on our website, or on Facebook—among other publicity uses. This will help us share information about our events and other happenings with the criminal justice and behavioral health community.

We respect your privacy, and if you are not comfortable with your photo or video footage of you being used in GAINS Center publicity and marketing materials, please speak with the meeting organizer, Crystal Brandow, upon receipt of this meeting agenda.
