

Forthcoming...

Common Elements of Juvenile Mental Health Courts

Designed to:
Guide and inform communities planning to institute JMHCs

A resource covering...

Based on:

- A National Survey of U.S. Juvenile Mental Health Courts (Callahan et al., 2012)¹
- Systematic observations
- Structured interviews with Juvenile Mental Health Court (JMHC) officials and stakeholders

- Program structure and administration
- Composition of JMHC teams
- Community partners
- Accountability of youth and families
- Use of incentives and sanctions
- Funding and sustainability
- Interventions and EBPs

Contact:

Lisa Callahan, Ph.D.
518.439.7415 ext. 5232
lcallahan@prainc.com

¹ Callahan, L., Coccozza, J., Steadman, H.J., & Tillman, S. (2012). A national survey of U.S. juvenile mental health courts. Psychiatric Services, (63)2.

Individual
Family
School
Community

For more information & a map of JMHCs, visit www.gainscenter.samhsa.gov

Developed by Policy Research Associates, Inc., with funding from the National Institute of Justice

POLICY RESEARCH ASSOCIATES

www.prainc.com